

Major Declared Fall 2020 or After

The History Major requires a total of 31 hours (10 courses + 1 hour)

I. Survey Level – 9 hours. Must include 3 different geographic regions: US (10603, 10613, 10703, 10713, 10723), Europe (10203, 10213, 10223), Latin America (10923, 10933), Asia (10943, 10953), the Middle East (10803, 10813), and World (10103, 10113.)

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

II. Upper level courses (30000 or 40000 level) – 9 hours (= 12 total with the HMS)

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

III. Historical Methodology – 6 hours. Majors must take the Historian's Craft (20003), preferably in freshman or sophomore year, and the History Major Seminar (49903), preferably in the junior year. Prerequisites for the HMS are junior or senior standing and at least 15 completed hours in history including the Historian's Craft. Seminar topics will vary by instructor, but always center on an original research project based on primary sources. The HMS carries WEM credit.

7. _____

8. _____

IV. History electives – 6 hours. May include upper or lower level courses.

9. _____

10. _____

V. ADRN 20101, "Make Your Major Work" (1 hour)

11. _____

Note: A maximum of 15 hours (at any level) in any one geographic area (Europe, U.S., Latin America, Asia, Middle East) may be counted towards the requirements for the major.