TCU Bilingüe Breakfast

Goal

• We are encouraging participation in the bilingual community at TCU

What are the language requirements for TCU Bilingüe Breakfast?

• Do we need to speak both languages, both Spanish and English already? No!

• Do we only need to speak just a little of one of these languages? Yes!

What exactly will we do at TCU Bilingüe Breakfast?

• When you come back in the next weeks, please bring with you “My Story,” your short biography on one page in just 1 language, the language you feel most comfortable writing in now.

• When you come back in the next weeks, please consider reading or speaking your 1-page biography in this language. We will help as a community to translate it into the other language.

• When you come back in the next weeks, please expect to listen to others’ stories for just a few minutes. Then plan to have conversations in either language or in both.

• We will start the sharing of stories here in the Private Dining Room at 7:15, so please get your food quickly. We will start conversations at 7:30.

• Please feel free to leave when you need to and to stay as long as you wish.

• On Wednesday October 9, we will ask you to bring with you to breakfast “My Story,” written in your other language. We will invite you to tell your story, or to read it, in your other language that morning or in the following weeks. We will help you as a community with translating.
